THE WEATHER.

Conditions—A shallow low that developed over the lower Ohio valley Monday night moved rapidly northeastward and merged with a northern low Tuesday morning over the lower lake region. This development has been associated with very general and in some places heavy thunder showers.

In the region of thunder shower temperature has fallen appreciably and now seasonal temperatures pre-vail in all parts of the United States except along the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts and in the southwest, be-Gulf coasts and in the southwest, beyond the Rocky mountains. The present rainy spell in the east will cease Wednesday and several days of fair weather will follow with a reaction to higher temperatures by Thursday. Winds—The winds along the north Atlantic coast will be light east, becoming west Thursday; along the middle Atlantic, moderate west.

Forecast—Northern New England: Showers Wednesday; Thursday partly cloudy.

Funeral of Mrs. Ellen O'Meara-Month's Mind for Mrs. Mary Ryan

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen O'Meara, widow of James O'Meara, was held Monday morning at 9.30 from her residence, 195 DeWlitt street, New Haven. The New Haven Journal-Courier says: A solemn high requiem mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock at Sacred Heart church, at which Rev. James A. O'Meara, son of the deceased, officiated.. He was assisted by Rev. W. J. McGurk of South Manchester, as deaated. He was assisted by Rev. W. J. McGurk of South Manchester, as deacon, and by Rev. Robert Early, subdeacon. Master of ceremonies was Rev. Thomas H. Tiernan of Moodus. At the conclusion of the mass, Father McKeon, paster of the church, extended words of sympathy to the bereaved ones. The church quartet rendered the music of the mass most beautifully. At the close Thy Will Be Done was sung. Burial was in the family plot in St. Bernard's cemetery. The bearers were Judge Edward P. CRIMINAL CASES DISPOSED OF

Court of Common Pleas at New London-Several Cases Nolled-Bonds Forfeited-William F. Austin's Jail Sentence Suspended on Condition That He Leave

The criminal court of common pleas opened in New London Tuesday morning with Judge Charles B, Waller on the bench. The court room was filled with spectators, attorneys and the accused persons when court was opened by Deputy Sheriff Herbert F, Draper of this city. All the accused parties were out on bond and the prisoners' pen was not put up. The civil session was opened immediately after the criminal session.

The jury was called in soon after court opened at 10 o'clock and after the roll was called, the jurors were excused until 20'clock in the afternoon as Prosecuting Attorney Charles B, Whittiesey stated that no trials would be reached in the morning. The follows the property of this city, charged with breach of the peace. Appleby is on a probation sentence from the superior on another charge and is being kept track of.

Levinson's Fine Stands.

Abraham Levinson of New London pleaded guilty to sciling liquor in his place in Golden street and to permitting females to loiter there Dec. 12, 1912. In the police court here he was fined $100 on the first count and $10 on the second.

Attorney Hellandersky stated to the court that the conditions which result-have been removed and the saloon is have been removed and the saloon is a probation sentence from the superior on another charge and is being kept track of.

he reached in the morning. I lowing cases were disposed of: The fol-Nolle on Short Lobsters. The case against J. W. Hammond, charged with having two short lobsters in his possession, was nolled. Prosecuting Attorney Whittlesey explained that the short lobsters were found in a large shipment and the law was probably violated uninten-tionally.

A nolle was entered in the case against Fred Fabel, charged with cru-elty to a horse, on the payment of $67.40. Accused of Taking Shad.

Elliott Ely of Old Lyme pleaded not guilty to the charge of taking four guilty to the charge of taking four shad from a tributory of the Connecticut river but changed his plea to guilty within a few minutes. The offense with which he is charged took place May 14, 1914. The case came up on an appeal from a fine of $50. Attorney Lubchansky said that the man was fishing on grants and deeds which had been traced back into Colonial times and that Ely had committed the offense in the sound and honest belief that he had a perfect right to fish there. At the last sesion of the legislature the law prohibiting shad fishing in the Connecticut was repealed showing that it had failed of repealed showing that it had failed of its purpose. Ely had done no injury in fishing there. Ely was fined $10 and costs by Judge Waller.

William F. Austin's Cace. William F. Austin of this city pleaded guilty to the charges of apporpriating $15 to his own use and to keeping a house of ill fame. In the lower court he was fined $25 and costs on the first charge and sentenced to 60 to the first charge and sentenced to 60 to 10 days in jail on the second charge. Judge Waller sentenced Austin to pay $25 and costs on the first charge and fined $100 and costs and 30 days in jail in the second suspending the jail sen-tence on the promise that Austin would leave town. Attorney J. T. Cun-minisham appeared for him.

The case against Charles Kankowsky of this city, a boy charged with taking a boat without permission of the owner, was nolled, the accused now having been committed to the reform school on another charge.

And Blisters Would Form. Skin Began to Crack Open. After First Day's Use Cuticura Soap and Ointment Baby Slept All Night.

54 Myrtle St., W. Lynn, Mass .- "At the age of ten months my baby began breaking out on his body. It looked as though he chafed. He would wake up at night and cry till time. It troubled him the most at night as it would burn so I had to get up and hold him two or three hours at a time. The eczema got so bad the skin soon began to crack open. "A friend of mine told me to get a cake of Cuticura Scap and a box of Ointment, I got them, gave him a good bath in warm water and Cuticura Soap, then applied the Ointment. In one day I saw a difference and that night he slept all night. The ec-zema continued growing better until it all disappeared in one week."
